BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council, and the House of Assembly in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Ratification of Agreement.

1. The Agreement made between His Excellency Sir William Allardyce, K.C.M.G., Governor of Newfoundland and its Dependencies in Council of the one part and the Newfoundland Milling Company, Limited, a Company incorporated under the laws of Newfoundland, of the other part dated the fourteenth day of July Anno Domini One thousand, nine hundred and twenty-four, and forming the Schedule to this Bill, shall be approved, ratified and confirmed, and all and singular the several clauses, provisions and conditions thereof, are hereby declared to be valid and binding upon the parties thereto, and each of them respectively, and all and singular the several acts, matters and things therein provided to be done or performed by or on the part of the parties respectively are hereby declared to be proper and lawful, and in so far as not by this Bill expressly provided for the parties and each of them shall have full power and authority to do and perform all and singular the several acts, matters and things, in and by the said Agreement provided to be done or not to be done, as the case may be, in the manner and under the conditions stipulated and provided in said Agreement.

Rate of Customs' Duty.

2. The rate of customs duty on grain imported by the Company and manufactured into flour and its bye products shall not during twenty years hereafter exceed an amount which compared with the Customs duty on imported flour shall afford a preference or protection to the Company's product of flour of twenty-five cents per one hundred and ninety-six pounds. The said rate shall be fixed from time to time by the Governor-in-Council.

Right of Free Entry.

3. During twenty years hereafter the following Articles when imported by the Company for use in connection with its works and business, but not for sale, shall be admitted into the Colony free of duty, that is to say:—

- (1) All plant, machinery, engines, apparatus, tools, implements, contractors' equipment (said contractors' equipment to be exported on completion of plant) and building materials which cannot be produced in Newfoundland necessary for the erection, original equipment, and extension of the said mill or mills, cooperage or cooperages, elevator, cleaning house, and storage warehouse, and other buildings or erections operated as a necessary part of the said mill or mills or any other buildings or erections, and for the extension of same, but not in substitution for old.

- (2) All hoop material for flour barrels.
- (3) Lithographed labels.
- (4) Sacks and cartons branded with the Company's trade mark.

4. If at any time during the term of this Agreement Remission of Sales' Tax. the payment of the Sales tax, provided by Section I of the Act 12 Geo. V. Cap. XXXII, on flour imported into the Colony is remitted, the Company shall not be liable to the payment of the said Sales tax in respect of flour manufactured by it, as provided by Sections 3 and 4 of the said Act.

SCHEDULE.

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into at St. John's, in the Colony of Newfoundland this 14th day of July Anno Domini One thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, BETWEEN His Excellency Sir William Allardyce, K.C.M.G., Governor of the Colony of Newfoundland and its Dependencies in Council, hereinafter called "the Government" of the one part, and the Newfoundland Milling Company, Limited, a Company incorporated under Chapter 127 of the Consolidated Statutes of Newfoundland (Third Series) hereinafter called "the Company" of the other part.

Recitals.

WHEREAS the Company is desirous of establishing in Newfoundland a Milling business and of erecting one or more grain mills for the milling of wheat and all kinds of grain; AND WHEREAS the Government desires to encourage and assist the establishing in Newfoundland of the said business; NOW THEREFORE it is hereby agreed between the parties as follows:—

Company to Erect Plant.

1. The Company shall erect in the Colony of Newfoundland a flour mill of a capacity of not less than one thousand barrels per day, together with an elevator, cleaning house, and storage warehouse and cooperage, all to be equipped with the most modern and improved type of machinery and equipment throughout, the total cost of which shall be about six hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Time Limit.

2. The Company shall commence to erect the buildings mentioned in paragraph one hereof within twelve months from the date of the passing by the Legislature of an Act approving this Agreement, and shall have the same completed and in operation on or before the first day of January 1927 and shall keep the same in continued operation.

3. The Company shall employ Newfoundland labour in the conduct of and in connection with the establishment and operation of the said milling industry with the exception of such skilled labour as shall not be ordinarily obtainable in Newfoundland.

4. The Company shall manufacture for sale in Newfoundland flour of a quality or qualities equal to that imported into Newfoundland.

5. The Government hereby grants to the Company for Exclusive Rights a period of twenty years from the first day of January 1927 the sole and exclusive right to erect and operate flour mills within the Colony of Newfoundland and its Dependencies.

6. (a) The rate of Customs duty on grain imported by the Company and manufactured into flour and its bye products shall not during twenty years hereafter exceed an amount which compared with the Customs duty on imported flour shall afford a preference or protection to the Company's product of flour of twenty-five cents per one hundred and ninety-six pounds.

The said rate shall be fixed from time to time by the Governor-in-Council.

(b) During twenty years hereafter the following articles when imported by the Company for use in connection with its works and business, but not for sale, shall be admitted into the Colony free of duty, that is to say:—

- (1) All plant, machinery, engines, apparatus, tools, implements, Contractors' equipment (said Contractors' equipment to be exported on completion of plant) and building materials which cannot be produced in Newfoundland necessary for the erection, original equipment and extension of the said mill or mills, cooperage or cooperages, elevator, cleaning house and storage warehouse, and other buildings or erections operated as a necessary part of the said mill or mills and for the extension of same, but not in substitution for old.

- (2) All hoop material for flour barrels.
- (3) Lithographed labels.
- (4) Sacks and Cartons branded with the Company's trade mark.

When agreement to be Void.      7. In the event that the Company fail in its Agreement in regard to paragraphs one, two and three hereof, this Agreement shall be void.

Provided, however that a temporary cessation of operations due to fire, explosion or other happening beyond the control of the Company shall not be deemed to be a breach of paragraph two hereof so as to render this Agreement void.

Company shall not sublet.      8. The Company shall not assign or sublet this Contract or any part or portion thereof to any person or Corporation whomsoever without the consent in writing of the Government first being had and obtained, which said consent shall not unreasonably be withheld.

Arbitration.      9. All matters of difference arising between the parties hereto upon any matters connected with or arising out of this Agreement shall be referred to three Arbitrators, one to be named by each of the parties hereto and a third to be named by the first two, and the award or decision of any two of the said Arbitrators shall be final and binding and the obtaining of the award of the Arbitrators shall be a condition precedent to the right to maintain any action under this Agreement by either party hereto. The provisions of the Judicature Act 1895 shall apply to all submissions to Arbitration under this Agreement.

Agreement to be ratified.      10. This Agreement is subject to the approval and ratification of the Legislature of Newfoundland.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF His Excellency the Governor-in-Council has caused the Great Seal of the Island of Newfoundland to be set hereto and has signed these presents, and the Company has set and affixed its Signature and Seal on the day and year first above written.

By His Excellency's Command.

(Sgd.) J. R. BENNETT,
Colonial Secretary.

The Common Seal of The NEWFOUNDLAND MILLING COMPANY, LIMITED, was hereto affixed in presence of:

SECTION —

- 6.—Materials admitted free of taxes and duty.
- 7.—Penalty.
- 8.—Company has no exclusive right to game.
- 9.—Fire protection.
Schedule.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Confirmation of agreement.

1. The Agreement made between His Excellency Sir William Lamond Allardyce, K.C.M.G., Governor of Newfoundland and its Dependencies, in Council, hereinafter called the Government of the one part, and the Gander Valley Power and Paper Company, Limited, hereinafter called the Company, of the other part, dated the day of July A.D., 1924, and forming the Schedule to this Act, is hereby approved and confirmed; and all and singular the several clauses and provisions thereof are hereby declared to be valid and binding upon the said parties thereto and each of them respectively, and all and singular the several acts, matters and things therein provided to be done or performed by or on the part of the parties respectively are hereby declared to be proper and lawful, and, in so far as not by this Act, expressly provided for, the parties and each of them shall have full power and authority to do and perform all and singular the several acts, matters and things, in and by the said Agreement provided to be done or not to be done, as the case may be, in the manner and under the conditions stipulated and provided in said Agreement.

Exemption from Municipal taxation.

2. All lands, water, water powers, buildings, erections, and all property whatsoever of the Company for use in connection with its operations and situate at Gander Bay, or within the drainage area of the Gander River or within a radius of ten miles from the junction of Barry's Brook with the Gander River shall be exempt from Municipal taxation.

Stock exempt from taxation

3. The stock, dividends, debentures, debenture stock, mortgage and other securities of the Company shall be exempt from taxation.

Company exempt from taxation until June 30th., 1974.

4. The Company shall until the thirtieth day of June, 1974, be exempt from all taxation (as for instance Municipal taxes, Income tax, Business Profits Tax) of every kind whatsoever other than duties (including Sales Tax) levied under the general laws of the Colony on goods imported by the Company and not otherwise exempt. Provided, however, that nothing in this clause contained shall be construed to exempt individual Officers, Shareholders or Employees of the Company from any taxation otherwise payable by them.

5. All material, plant, tools, fixtures and machinery required for the construction, equipping and installation of the Company's (which expression shall include its subsidiary companies), water power, hydro-electric, electrical, electro-chemical, electro-metallurgical, ground-wood pulp, cellulose, paper and other plants, mills, factories and works, offices and public buildings, including sewerage, water and heating and lighting installations for public purposes, both for original installation and further extension, but not in substitution for old, shall until the 30th day of June, 1954, be admitted into the Colony free of taxes and duty.

6. All materials not procurable in Newfoundland of Materials ad-quality and at prices which shall be satisfactory to the Company, required for the purposes of the manufacture of the products of the Company's and its subsidiary Companies' electro-chemical, electro-metallurgical and other electric industries not concerned with pulp and paper making, shall for the period of fifty (50) years calculated from the date of the entry into commercial operation of each of such industries be admitted into the Colony free of taxes and duty.

7. For every violation of the undertaking contained in clause Seventeen (d) of the Agreement the Schedule to this Act the Company shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars to be recovered in a summary manner before a Stipendiary Magistrate.

8. To prevent doubts, it is hereby declared that the Company has no exclusive right to game, including moose and Caribou, found on its lands, that it shall not by fences or barriers interfere with the annual migration of Caribou or Moose, that all game laws of the Colony and regulations made thereunder shall apply upon the lands of the Company as elsewhere in the Colony and that the provisions of Section 14 of Chapter 129 of the Consolidated Statutes of Newfoundland (Third Series) shall continue to apply to the Crown leaseholds of the Company and Section 5 of the Act 4 Edward Seventh, Chapter 13, to the freehold lands of the Company.

Fire protection.

9. The Company may from time to time make regulations for safeguarding their property from injury by fire, which regulations when approved by the Governor-in-Council, shall have the force and effect of law. Subject to such regulations the public and every member thereof shall have the right to fish, shoot, hunt and trap over the lands and timber areas of the Company and of navigating streams, rivers and lakes included therein, and to maintain thereon for use in such navigation or travelling any kind of vessel or boat.

SCHEDULE.

THIS AGREEMENT made this sixteenth day of August in the year of Our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and twenty-four BETWEEN HIS EXCELLENCY SIR WILLIAM LAMOND ALLARDYCE, K.C.M.G., Governor of Newfoundland and its Dependencies, in Council, (hereinafter called "the Government") of the one part, and GANDER VALLEY POWER and PAPER COMPANY, LIMITED, a Company registered under the Companies Act of Newfoundland, (hereinafter called "the Company") of the other part.

WHEREAS the Company has been incorporated under the laws of Newfoundland for the purpose chiefly of hydro-electric development of the water-powers of the Gander River for use in the production of pulp and paper and in other industries, and the Government has agreed to grant to the Company certain rights and privileges in aid of the enterprise:—

AND WHEREAS the Company has acquired from the Owners and for lessees thereof all the water-powers and water-power rights on the Gander River held under grants, leases or licenses heretofore made and actually subsisting:

NOW IT IS HEREBY AGREED as follows:—

1. The Government hereby demises to the Company so far as the Government can consistently with any grants, leases or licenses heretofore made and actually subsisting demise the same the water-powers in and upon the Gander River and its tributaries for a term of ninety-nine years from the date of this Agreement renewable as hereinafter provided and for the purpose of its works and operations the Company shall have the right to divert, stop or dam up any stream, lake or water course within the drainage area of the Gander River, and to make, construct and maintain any dams, water courses, culverts, drains and reservoirs in said area for any of its said works or operations.

2. The Government hereby undertakes to grant to the Company a fee simple mining grant of one square mile of land situate on the South Side of Cobb's Arm, described as follows:—Commencing at a point West one half mile from the bottom of Cobb's Arm, thence South one mile, East one mile, North one mile and West one mile to point of commencement, bearings magnetic.

3. The Government undertakes to grant to the Company at the price of thirty cents per acre any lands now belonging to and in possession of the Crown and not under lease or license which may be required as incident into flowage rights within the drainage area of the Gander River, or rights of way for telegraphs, telephones, power transmission lines, cables, pipe lines, railways, tramways, roads or sites for canals, reservoirs, mills, works, factories, stores or warehouses, or for town sites, or so much of the seashore or foreshore and of the public waters and land thereunder as may be required for wharves, docks, quays, piers, warehouses and other buildings, or shipping facilities in connection with the Company's operations and situate within the drainage area of the Gander River or situate within a radius of ten miles from the junction of Barry's Brook with the Gander River, but the quantity of land so granted shall not exceed in the whole ten thousand acres. Provided that the Government shall not be under obligation to grant any such lands at any time after the expiration of a period of six years from the date of this Agreement.

4. (1) If the Company shall be at any time or times desirous of acquiring lands not belonging to or not in possession of the Crown and required in connection with the Company's operations for any of the purposes mentioned in the last preceding clause of this Agreement, and situate within the drainage area of the Gander River or situate within a radius of ten miles from the junction of Barry's Brook with the Gander River, and shall be unable to agree with the Owners or occupiers of such lands as to the purchase money or compensation to be paid therefor, the Company, with the consent of the Government, may enter and take such lands, and the purchase money or other compensation, to be paid by the Company to the Owners or Occupiers of such lands shall be settled by Arbitration in manner hereinafter provided. And upon payment of such purchase money or compensation aforesaid, the said lands including all rights, if any, of the Crown therein shall become and be the absolute indefeasible property of the Company.

- (2) Every such Arbitration shall be conducted as follows:—
  - (a) There shall be three Arbitrators, one appointed by each of the contestant parties, and the third by the Supreme Court, consisting of not less than two Judges. The application to the Supreme Court for the appointment of an Arbitrator may be made by either of the contestant parties upon motion after four days' notice thereof has been duly served upon the other party;
  - (b) In estimating the amount of compensation to be awarded by Arbitrators, no increase in the value of the property by reason of the actual or projected operations of the Company shall be taken into consideration.
  - (c) Sections 194 to 214, both inclusive, of the Judicature Act, shall apply to all such arbitrations, in so far as the same do not conflict with the preceding sub-clauses (a) and (b) hereof.

- (3) If in any instance the Company is desirous of exercising the powers of expropriation contained in this clause so as to affect the timber lands or rights of any person or Company holding and operating timber limits in Newfoundland, it shall give notice thereof in writing to the Owner or holder of such lands or rights, and if the latter objects to such expropriation he shall give notice thereof to the Company in writing within ten days, and the objection shall be referred to Arbitration in manner hereinbefore provided and if the Arbitrators find
- (a) That the lands are needed by the Company for any of the aforesaid purposes; and
- (b) That the purpose cannot be as well served without increased expense or considerable inconvenience to the Company as by the expropriation of the said lands; and
- (c) That giving due weight to the prior rights of the Owner or holder, and to the value of the lands to him as connected with his own enterprises, it is upon the whole expedient in the public interest that the Company shall be allowed to expropriate the said lands:—

the Company, with the consent of the Government, may enter and take such lands, and the same Arbitrators shall proceed to assess the amount to be paid or compensation to be given, and upon payment thereof the said lands, including all rights, if any, of the Crown therein, shall become and be the absolute indefeasible property of the Company.

5. If the Company in or by reason of the exercise of any of the rights hereby granted, submerge, destroy, damage or injuriously affect any private rights, interests, lands or property, and shall be unable to agree with the Owner thereof as to compensation to be paid therefor, the Company with the consent of the Government may proceed with the exercise of the said rights, by these presents granted to the said Company, and the Compensation to be paid by the Company to the Owner, for or in respect of such rights, interests, lands or property shall be settled by Arbitration in the manner hereinbefore provided.

6. If the Company, in or by reason of the exercise of any of the rights hereby granted, submerge, destroy, damage or injuriously affect any public or Crown rights, interests, lands or property, the Compensation to be paid by the Company to the Government for or in respect of such rights, interests, lands or property, shall be settled by Arbitration in the manner hereinbefore provided.

7. All lands, water, water-powers, buildings, erections and all property whatsoever of the Company for use in connection with its operations and situate at Gander Bay, or within the drainage area of the Gander River, or within a radius of ten miles from the junction of Barry's Brook with the Gander River shall be exempt from Municipal taxation.

8. The stock, dividends, debentures, debenture stock, mortgages and other securities of the Company shall be exempt from taxation.

9. The Company shall until the thirtieth day of June, 1974 be exempt from all taxation (as for instance Municipal taxes, Income tax, Business Profits tax) of every kind whatsoever other than duties (including Sales Tax) levied under the general laws of the Colony on goods imported by the Company and not otherwise exempt. Provided however, that nothing in this clause contained shall be construed to exempt individual Officers, Shareholders or Employees of the Company from any taxation otherwise payable by them.

10. All material, plant, tools, fixtures, and machinery required for the construction, equipping and installation of the Company's (which expression shall include its subsidiary companies), water power, hydro-electric, electrical, electro-chemical, electro-metallurgical ground-wood pulp, cellulose, paper and other plants, mills, factories and works, offices and public buildings, including sewerage, water and heating and lighting installations for public purposes, both for original installation and further extension, but not in substitution for old, shall until the 30th day of June, 1954, be admitted into the Colony free of taxes and duty.

11. All materials not procurable in Newfoundland of quality and at prices which shall be satisfactory to the Company, required for the purposes of the manufacture of the products of the Company's and for its subsidiary Companies' electro-chemical, electro-metallurgical and other electric industries not concerned with pulp and paper making, shall for the period of fifty (50) years calculated from the date of the entry into commercial operation of each of such industries be admitted into the Colony free of taxes and duty.

12. The Company may at any time or times build, maintain, and operate telephone and telegraph lines, for the purpose of its private business, that is to say, communicating between its factories, mills and camps, and construct and maintain and operate all necessary power transmission lines, cables and pipe lines.

13. WHEREVER the development works of the Company make it necessary or expedient to divert, raise, lower or otherwise alter the course and gradients of the Newfoundland Railway, the Company is hereby authorized and empowered so to do. In all such cases of diversion, raising, lowering, or otherwise altering the course and gradients of the said Railway that part of the permanent way affected shall be rebuilt by the Company at its own expense in accordance with the specification contained in the Railway Contract of 1893. The new location of the lines and the execution of the work shall be subject to the approval of the Government.

The work shall be carried out in such manner and order as to cause as little interruption and inconvenience as possible to the operation of the Newfoundland Railway.

14. The Company undertakes to begin actual construction work upon its hydro-electric plant within three years from the date of these presents, and to expend a sum of five million dollars, within the Island of Newfoundland, in and about the business and operations of the Company, within six years from the date of these presents, and if the Company fails to begin such work or expend such money within the times mentioned this Agreement shall be void and any Crown Lands granted to the Company under the provisions of clause Two or clause Three of this Agreement shall revert to the Government.

15. The Government agrees to introduce legislation (a) providing that the erection and completion by the Company at or near the Gander River within six years from the date of this Agreement of a paper mill of a capacity of not less than two hundred tons of paper per working day shall be regarded as a proper performance by the Company of the conditions contained in the various Crown Timber Licenses vested in the Company at the date of such completion, and thereafter acquired by the Company, to the effect that the licensees shall erect saw mills of a certain capacity or shall expend certain sums in the erection and equipment of a factory or factories for the manufacture of paper pulp and (b) empowering the Company to make regulations for safeguarding its property from injury by fire.

16. The Government will, upon the nomination of the Company, appoint a chief Fire Warden, who shall be paid by the Company, and who shall within the lands of the Company, both freehold and leasehold, possess all the powers in respect of the prevention of forest fires and the prosecution of Offenders, as are given to any Ranger or other Official under any Act of the Legislature in reference to the prevention of forest fires. In particular he and the Assistant fire wardens shall be empowered to patrol the forest lands of the Company and arrest all violators of laws or regulations to prevent forest fires. The said chief Fire-Warden may, on the nomination of the Company, appoint assistant fire-wardens, who shall be paid by the Company, and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Chief fire-warden, and approved by the Government. The Chief fire-warden and Assistant fire-wardens shall hold office during the pleasure of the Government and shall be dischargeable by the Government or the Company.

17. (a) Notwithstanding the grant of the water-powers herein, all persons shall have the right to the use of the said waters for the purpose of passing to and fro in boats, with freight or otherwise, and for fishing, and for the purpose of floating logs and lumber, and for such purposes to use the Company's log sluices.
  - (b) Every dam erected by the Company shall be constructed with proper log sluices and with necessary fish ladders which will provide for the passage of salmon and other fish.
  - (c) The Company shall provide means for the passage of small boats at each of the dams built by the Company.
  - (d) The Company shall and will take means to prevent the introduction into any public water, lakes, streams, bays, creeks or harbours of any noxious or deleterious substance or any saw-dust or refuse of saw mills.
18. In view of the possibility of hydro-electric power being required in the future for the operation by electricity of the Newfoundland Railway the Company shall, and will, prior to offering the same to others, offer for sale for such purpose to the Government or its assigns for the time being operating the Railway any electric power developed by the Company and not required by the Company (which expression here includes its subsidiary companies) for its own use at a price to be agreed upon and in default of agreement to be fixed by arbitration under Clause twenty-one of the Agreement. Provided that if the Government or its assigns do not accept such offer within thirty (30) days after the date thereof the Company shall be free to sell or otherwise deal with the power as it thinks fit.

19. If this demise shall not have been determined under Clause Fourteen of this Agreement, the Government will, at the request and cost of the Company, at the expiration of every further term of ninety-nine years which may hereafter be granted under this Covenant, grant to the Company, subject to the like Covenants, provisions and Agreements as are in and by these presents reserved and contained, a renewal lease for the further term of ninety-nine years, to be computed from the expiration of the preceding term.

20. In this Agreement, wherever the context admits, the expression "the Company" shall be deemed to include besides Gander Valley Power and Paper Company, Limited, its assigns.

21. Any questions, disputes or differences arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement or the execution thereof shall, on the application of either party, be referred to the award and final determination of two disinterested persons, one to be appointed by each of the parties in difference, and if the Arbitrators fail to agree, then to the award, umpirage and final determination of an Umpire to be appointed by the Arbitrators, and the award of such Arbitrators or Umpire shall be final and binding on both parties, and any such reference shall be deemed a submission to arbitration within the meaning of the Judicature Act.

22. The Company shall employ Newfoundland labour in the conduct of and in connection with the establishment and operation of its said works with the exception of such skilled labour as shall not be ordinarily obtainable in Newfoundland.

23. This Agreement is subject to Confirmation and Approval by the Legislature of Newfoundland.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF His Excellency the Governor in-Council has caused the Great Seal of Newfoundland to be set hereunto and has signed these presents, and Gander Valley Power and Paper Company, Limited, has caused these presents to be executed in accordance with its regulations, the day and year first before written.

By His Excellency's Command.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Respecting authority to construct Plants and Lines.

1. The United Towns Electric Company, Limited (hereinafter called "The Company") are hereby authorized and empowered to construct, lay down, establish, fix, install, operate and maintain all necessary works, buildings, machinery, sidings, switches, transmission lines, poles, wires, lights, apparatus, appliances and conveniences, and to generate, accumulate, store, transmit, distribute, supply and sell electricity (a) for lighting, (b) for heating, (c) for power purposes and driving machinery (1) in the towns or settlements or parishes of Argentia, Placentia, and St. Bride's in the electoral district of Placentia and St. Mary's; (2) with the permission and approval of, and subject to the Rules and Regulations of the St. John's Municipal Council, in the city of St. John's; (3) with the exception of the City of St. John's as aforesaid and Bell Island, in the town or settlements in the Electoral districts of St. John's Eastern and Western Divisions; (4) in the towns or settlements of Green's Harbour, New Harbour, Dildo and Blaketown in the Electoral District of Trinity; (5) in the towns or settlements from Grate's Cove to Freshwater, inclusive, and including Old Perlican, in the electoral district of Bay-de-Verde; and may purchase, lease or otherwise acquire any real or personal property necessary for carrying on the operations of the Company.

2. If the Company find it necessary for the efficient construction, maintenance and operation of its work, or <sup>Authority to appropriate lands.</sup> for any purpose connected therewith to diverge from the street or highway in any town settlement or parish aforesaid, the Company may with the Sanction of the Governor-in-Council enter upon and assume possession of and appropriate for any of the purposes mentioned in this Section any lands belonging to any persons or corporation that may be necessary for the opening, construction, maintenance or operation of all or any of its works or for the erection of any buildings requisite for maintaining or operating the same and the compensation to be paid by the Company to the Owner for or in respect of such lands or the damage or injury sustained by the Owner in the exercise of the rights of the Company under this Section shall be settled by Arbitration in the manner hereinafter provided. No rights of entry, possession, expropriation, or preemption or otherwise howsoever under this Section, shall be exercisable by the Company in reference to or in respect of any lands belonging to any person or corporations carrying on any business or businesses similar to that of the Company nor in reference to or in respect of any lands within the City of St. John's.

3. For the purpose of ascertaining the damage that <sup>Arbitration clause.</sup> may be occasioned to any person or Corporation whose interest in any lands may be in any way affected under the preceding Sections of this Act and of assessing the compensation to be paid by the Company to the Owner in respect thereof as aforesaid the Company shall appoint one Arbitrator, the person interested in the said land another, and the two Arbitrators so appointed shall appoint a third or Umpire; and in the event of the person so interested in the land failing to so appoint an Arbitrator after seven clear days' notice so to do then the said Company may apply to the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, who shall, after due notice to the person or Corporation interested in the land, appoint such Arbitrator, and the Arbitrators so appointed by the Company, and the Court or Judge shall thereupon appoint a third Arbitrator as Umpire; and in the event of the last mentioned Arbitrators failing to appoint a third Arbitrator after seven clear days' notice from the Company so to do, the Supreme Court or Judge thereof shall, on the application of the Company appoint such third Arbitrator or Umpire; and the award of such Arbitrators, or any two of them, shall be final and binding between the parties.

Limit of time for Construction and Operation,

4. The Company shall within three years from the passing of this Act proceed with the construction of all works which may be necessary for the installation of electricity in the aforesaid towns settlements or parishes, and shall fully complete said works and operate the same within five years from the passing of this Act, provided that if the Company shall not have proceeded with the construction of said works and have the said works fully completed and in operation in any one of the said towns or settlements in each of the Electoral Districts within the period mentioned in this Section all rights, privileges and advantages granted to the Company by this Act shall cease and determine in the towns, settlement or parish in which the said works may not be completed at such a time.

Company liable for losses and damages.

5. For all losses, damages or injuries caused by the Company, its Officers, Agents, Servants or Contractors in building, operating or maintaining all or any of the works contemplated hereunder to any public property or the property of the aforesaid towns or settlements or the City of St. John's, or any of them, the Company shall be liable to make good the same, and in default thereof the Company may be sued as for an ordinary tort in any Court of competent ent jurisdiction in Newfoundland and the amount of such damage together with costs recovered against the Company in such suit to be taken in the name of the Minister of Public Works or the Mayor of the City of St. John's as the case may be.

6. The Company shall not sell, assign, transfer or lease any right, power, privilege or advantage granted to the Company by this Act, nor agree or contract with any person, firm or Company whereby the aforesaid towns, settlements or parishes, or the City of St. John's as aforesaid or any of them may be deprived of the full exercise by the Company of any such right, power, privilege or advantage.

7. All plant, machinery, equipment, tools and utensils necessary for the original construction of the said works shall be admitted into the Colony free of duty.

8. Nothing in this Act contained shall give the Company any exclusive right, power, privilege or advantage in any wise howsoever.

Property and profits of Board.

10. All property possessed by the Board and all profits earned by it shall be the property of the Colony.

11. Every sum of money collected by the Board shall be deposited in the name of the Board in such bank as the Minister of Finance and Customs, at his discretion, shall indicate, and money of the Board in any Bank or Banks which the Minister of Finance and Customs considers available shall, on demand, be handed over to such Minister, and every such sum of money after it is so handed over shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

12. The Board shall render an account to the Minister of Finance and Customs, in the manner and at the times indicated by the latter of its receipts and disbursements, as well as its assets and liabilities:

- (a) The Board's operations shall be subject to examination and audit by persons appointed by the Governor-in-Council.

ESTABLISHMENTS OF THE BOARD.

13. The Board may have the following stores and warehouses:—

- (1) Its principal store and warehouse in the City of St. John's.
- (2) A branch thereof in that part of the City of St. John's included in the electoral division of St. John's East, and a branch thereof in that part of the City of St. John's included in the electoral division of St. John's West.
- (3) Branches thereof in areas defined by the Board in which no part of the city of St. John's is included, provided:
  - (a) the number of branches in any electoral District shall not exceed the number of members of the House of Assembly to which such district is entitled.

- (b) In no area shall a Branch be opened unless and until a majority of the Electors therein shall by petition authenticated to the satisfaction of the Board request the opening of such Branch.
- (c) A branch may be for the sale of Alcoholic liquor generally, or of wine and beer only, as the petition for opening the branch may request; and the purpose of a branch may be enlarged or contracted as provided hereinafter.

Nevertheless, railway passenger trains and passenger steamers on which the sale of wine and beer is permitted, shall for such purpose be held to be branch establishments of the Board, and sale thereon as hereinafter provided shall be lawful in any part of the Colony.

- (4) All branches shall be in charge of persons appointed by the Board, and such persons shall be and be held to be Agents of the Board. They shall be paid such salaries, or allowed such profits or commissions as the Board shall decide.
- (5) No profession, trade or occupation other than the sale of Alcoholic liquor shall be conducted in any branch, save on railway passenger trains and on passenger steamers.
- (6) If at any time after two years from the opening of any Branch a majority of the Electors residing in any area in respect of which a Branch is located shall by petition authenticated to the satisfaction of the Board express a desire that if limited to wine and beer, a branch shall be allowed to sell spirits, or, if allowed to sell spirits, shall be limited to wine and beer, or that a branch shall be discontinued, the Board shall order accordingly.
- (7) Members of the Board and Stipendiary Magistrates shall require witnesses to the signatures to petitions hereunder to testify to the authenticity thereof, and are authorized to administer oaths.

(8) Any person signing the name of any other person to a petition under this Act without the express authority of the person whose name is so signed, and any person taking a false oath as to the authenticity of the signatures to any such petition, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

14. Alcoholic liquor sold in any branch shall not be consumed therein. Consumption of liquor sold.

15. No Alcoholic liquor may be kept, possessed or transported, except:— Keeping of liquor

- (a) in stores and warehouses of the Board, or in some other place under its control;
- (b) in accordance with the provisions of this Act by those who have acquired it from the Board either from its principal store or a branch thereof, or who have acquired the same under Section 33 of this Act;
- (c) in the residence of any person, provided that such liquor shall not be kept with intent to sell the same (and one sale shall suffice to establish such intent);
- (d) in the baggage of a traveller who is transporting such liquor for his personal use;
- (e) in places where it is expressly permitted by the Board to keep the same. The Board may permit spirits of wine, but not beer, to be kept in ships about to proceed to sea, in Labrador or Bank fishing vessels, or in logging camps, or by specially appointed persons where branches do not exist, for medicinal purposes only, and not for sale as a beverage;

(f) No alcoholic liquor shall be carried in any ship, vessel or boat engaged in coasting, fishing or trading in this Colony, beyond such quantity as may be bona fide required or necessary for ship's stores, and permitted by the Board: The Master of any ship, vessel or boat, as well as the Owner thereof, or either of them, if cognizant of any breach hereof, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

- (g) The Board may permit wine and beer to be kept on railway passenger trains or on passenger steamers for use as a beverage at meals;
- (h) As to sacramental wine, in a Church, Chapel or dependency,—and the keeping of alcoholic liquor elsewhere than in the places mentioned in this paragraph shall constitute an offence under this Act. Nevertheless the transportation of alcoholic liquor by or for the Board, by steamboat or common carrier, shall be lawful.
- (i) Alcoholic liquors kept or transported in contravention hereof may be seized without warrant by a person authorized by the Board or by a Constable and confiscated.

PERMITS TO KEEP AND SELL WINE AND BEER.

Permits may be granted by Board

16. Permits may be granted by the Board.

- (a) To the Owners, Operators or Managers of hotels, tourist hotels and clubs to keep and sell bottled wine or beer in such hotels, tourist hotels, and clubs, to travellers and members only, respectively, at meals, for consumption at such meals.
- (b) To a person in charge of a banquet to keep and sell bottled wine and beer at such banquet, for consumption at the dining table, during the meal. No permit shall be necessary for a banquet in a place in respect of which a permit has been granted under the preceding sub-section.

- (c) A permit shall not be granted in respect of an hotel, or club situated in or a banquet to be held in any town, village or settlement included in an area in which a branch establishment of the Board is not permitted under Section 13 hereof, but a permit may be granted to a tourist hotel in any part of the Colony, provided that no sale of wine or beer shall be made in a tourist hotel to any person ordinarily resident within ten miles of such hotel.
- (d) Sale in hotels, tourist hotels, and clubs, or at banquets for consumption, elsewhere than at meals, of wine or beer purchased therein or thereat, shall be an offence against this Act.
- (e) Bottled wine or Beer, kept by the holder of a permit, for sale, shall, while in his possession, be kept in the bottles in which it was when purchased by him, bearing the label of the Board, and he shall not put therein any other alcoholic liquor.
- (g) A holder of a permit shall not allow the sale of any bottle of wine or beer which does not bear thereon a label precisely and correctly indicating the contents thereof.
- (h) A holder of a permit shall not allow the mixing of any alcoholic liquor he is not permitted to sell with any wine or beer he is permitted to sell.
- (i) A holder of a permit shall not sell or allow to be sold wine or beer between half past eleven o'clock in the evening and nine o'clock in the morning of the next day.
- (j) The Board may refuse to grant, or may revoke, any permit without assigning any cause for such refusal or revocation.
- (k) The fee for a permit shall be fixed by the Board,

(l) Every applicant for a permit for an hotel, tourist hotel or club shall, before filing his application to the Board, give notice of his intention to apply for such permit, by advertisement in the form prescribed by the regulations made hereunder, once a week for four consecutive weeks preceding his application, in the Newfoundland Gazette, and in a newspaper published in the locality in which the premises is situate, or if no newspaper is published in that locality, then in the Newfoundland Gazette and a newspaper published in St. John's.

(m) The application for a permit shall be in the form prescribed by the regulations, and shall be filed with the Board accompanied by the prescribed fee, and such application shall contain a description of that part of the premises in respect of which the applicant desires a permit, and shall furnish such other matter, information, description or plan of that part of the premises in which it is proposed to keep, sell and consume under the permit applied for as may be required by the regulations and by the Board.

(n) No permit to sell in respect of a hotel or tourist hotel shall be issued or granted—

(1) Unless such hotel or tourist hotel contains, in addition to what is required for the permittee, his family and servants, sufficient bed-rooms, with suitable complement of bedding and furniture, public sitting rooms, and other conveniences reasonably suited to the requirements of the public likely to make use of the same.

(2) Unless the hotel, or tourist hotel and the part thereof where wine and beer may be kept, sold and consumed under the permit applied for, are constructed, equipped and conducted to the satisfaction of the Board, and constructed and equipped so as not to facilitate any breach of this Act or the regulations made thereunder, and the premises have been approved of in writing by an inspector appointed or authorized by the Board to inspect the same;

- (o) The Board shall consider any objections or protests to the issue of Permits filed by any person with the Board.
- (p) Every permit shall be constantly and conspicuously exposed in that part of the premises specified in the permit where wine and beer may be kept, sold and consumed under such permit.
- (q) Unless sooner cancelled, every permit issued by the Board during 1924 or 1925 shall expire at midnight on the 31st day of December, 1925, and thereafter every permit issued shall expire at midnight on the 31st day of December in the year in which the permit is issued. In case the permittee applies for a new permit for the following year in respect of the same premises, he shall not unless so required by the Board be required to give notice by advertisement of his intention to apply for a new permit.
- (r) No permit shall be transferable.

- (s) Every permit issued under this Act shall be subject to all conditions and restrictions imposed by this Act, and the regulations made thereunder in force from time to time.

IMPORTATION, MANUFACTURE AND ADULTERATION.

17. No person other than the Board or a person permitted by the Board so to do, may import alcoholic liquor. Only Board may import liquor.

- (a) The Board shall give a permit to import wine for sacramental purposes to a person nominated by the head in this Colony of any religious denomination generally recognized as worshipping herein, and the importation and the sale and delivery of such wine by such person for sacramental purposes shall be lawful, but the sale or delivery thereof except for sacramental purposes shall be an offence against this Act. The Permittee shall report his proceedings to the Board when requested.

Manufacture of liquor

18. No person may manufacture any alcoholic liquor except by permission of the Board:

- (a) The Board may permit the manufacture of wine or beer.
- (b) The Board may refuse to grant, or may revoke, any permit to manufacture wine or beer, without assigning any cause for such refusal or revocation.
- (c) The fee for such permit shall be fixed by the Board.

Manufacturer to make returns.

19. Every manufacturer shall make to the Board every month, in the form that the Board shall determine, an exact return, showing the amount manufactured, and disposed of, and the amount in stock:

- (a) Any manufacturer who fails to make such return to the Board within the fifteen days following the expiration of any Calendar month shall be liable to a fine of fifty dollars per day for each day's delay, from the expiration of such fifteen days.
- (b) The Board may make an examination of the manufacturer's books, or check the accuracy of any return.
- (c) Any Manufacturer refusing to allow such examination, or failing to make an accurate return, shall be liable to a fine of one thousand dollars.

20. A Manufacturer shall not sell or deliver wine or beer except to the Board, or to a person authorized by the Board to sell wine and beer, or to a purchaser from the Board, and in a manner indicated by the Board.

- (a)A manufacturer selling to any person holding the Board's permit to sell wine and beer shall collect from such person before delivery a charge at the rate of five dollars per centum on the gross value of such sale, and shall pay the amount so collected to the Board when called upon.
- (b)Wine and beer sold and delivered by manufacturers shall be in bottles only, bearing a label approved by the Board.
- (c)Any manufacturer who fails to collect such charges before the delivery, or to hand the charge over to the Board at such times as it may fix, or who shall sell, and deliver wine and beer in bottles not bearing a label approved by the Board, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and be liable, in addition to the costs and the payment of the purchase price collected, or to be collected, to a fine of one thousand dollars. Every such failure, moreover, shall entail a cancellation by the Board of the Manufacturer's permit.

21. No person shall mix or cause to be mixed any deleterious or noxious ingredient with alcoholic liquor sold or exposed for sale by him, or sell any such alcoholic liquor:—

- (a)Any person having possession of any alcoholic liquor adulterated by deleterious or noxious ingredients shall be deemed knowingly to have exposed the same for sale, unless he can satisfactorily account therefor.
- (b)Whenever any person is prosecuted and found guilty of any offence under this Act, the amount of the fine, or the length of the term of imprisonment to which such person would be otherwise liable, shall be doubled, if, at the trial, it be proved that the alcoholic liquor sold by such person was of bad quality and was unfit for consumption, had been made fraudulently, or was adulterated or misrepresented as to its character.

SALE AND PEDDLING.

Sale by permits.

22. Alcoholic liquor shall not be sold except by the Board or its Agents or under and according to permits granted hereunder by the Board, save as permitted by Section 30 hereof.

(a) No sale or delivery shall be made before nine o'clock in the morning or after six o'clock in the evening of any day, or on any Saturday after one o'clock in the afternoon.

(b) No sale or delivery shall be made on Sundays, or on Bank or Public holidays, or in any constituency in which an election of a member for the House of Assembly is taking place, on the day of such election.

(c) No sale shall be made except for cash.

(d) No sale shall be made on any one day to any one person of more than one bottle of spirits, except for industrial purposes. Special regulations to safeguard the rigid observation of this limitation shall be made by the Board under Section 9 hereof.

(e) No spirits, wine or beer shall be sold by the Board or its Agents, for beverage purposes, except in bottles, wrapped or corked so as to prevent fraud, and bearing labels or marks to identify it as sold by the Board.

- (1) The Board shall give notice through the Newfoundland Gazette of the character of such labels or marks.
  - (2) Making any such label or mark, or having it in one's possession or affixing it to any bottle containing spirits, wine or beer, without the authority of the Board, shall be an offence against this Act.
- (f) No person shall sell or deliver except to the Board, or consume, within this Colony, any Alcoholic liquor in transit mentioned in Section 2, (19a) hereof, or sell, deliver or consume within this Colony any Alcoholic liquor, part of a ship's stores, mentioned in Section 2, (19b) hereof.

Subsections A and B hereof shall not apply to sales on passenger trains and steamers, and subsections A, B and C hereof shall not apply to sales for medicinal purposes, or to sales in hotels, tourist hotels, clubs or banquets.

23. No alcoholic liquor shall be sold:—

- Persons to whom liquor shall not be sold
- (a) To any person who has not reached the age of twenty-one years.
  - (b) To any keeper or inmate of a disorderly house.
  - (c) To any person convicted of drunkenness or of any offence caused by drunkenness. This prohibition to sell to such person may be suspended by the Board after six months from the date of the conviction upon application by such person to the Board.
  - (d) To any person who habitually drinks alcoholic liquor to excess, and to whom the Board has, after investigation, decided to prohibit the sale of such liquor upon application to the Board by the b*mra*.

band, wife, father, mother, brother, sister, guardian, employer or other person depending upon or in charge of such person. The prohibition of any person by the Board may be removed by the Board.

(e) To any Esquimaux or Indian.

(f) To any Constable on duty except by authority of his Superior Officer.

(g) To an inmate other than an employee thereof of a hospital, or lunatic or poor asylum.

(h) No sale made to any of the foregoing persons, or to persons concerning whom a notice has been given under Section 26 hereof, by any person permitted by the Board to make sales, shall constitute an offence, unless the vendor has knowledge that such person is one to whom a sale is prohibited.

(i) The delivery of alcoholic liquor to any one of the persons mentioned in this Section shall be held to constitute a sale.

Notwithstanding, alcoholic liquor may be sold to any of the foregoing persons by the Board or its Agents, or by persons authorized under Section 30 hereof, for medicinal purposes, under Regulations made by the Board.

Offences.

24. No person shall:—

(1) Possess a still or other implement of a kind commonly used for the manufacture of alcoholic liquor (except a person holding a permit of the Board to manufacture wine and beer), and the possession of such a still or implement shall be prima facie proof of a violation hereof, and unless the innocence of the accused is proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate he shall be held to be guilty of a violation of this Section, and shall be liable to imprisonment, without the option of a fine, for three months for the first offence, and for six months for a second or subsequent offence; or

(2) Consume any alcoholic liquor in any public place; or

(3) Be in an intoxicated condition in any public place; or

(4) Sell any alcoholic liquor to any person apparently under the influence of alcoholic liquor; or

(5) Permit drunkenness to take place in any house or on any premises of which he is the Owner, tenant or occupant; or

(6) Permit or suffer any person apparently under the influence of Alcoholic liquor to consume any Alcoholic liquor in any house or on any premises of which the first-named person is Owner, tenant or occupant; or

(7) Give any Alcoholic liquor to any person apparently under the influence of Alcoholic liquor.

25. Whosoever, being of the age of less than twenty-one years, is found in any place in which alcoholic liquor is sold, and gives no satisfactory reason for his presence, or who buys alcoholic liquor for himself or another, or performs any work in any establishment of the Board, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

26. When it shall be proved on oath, to the satisfaction of any Stipendiary Magistrate, that any person is an habitual drunkard, or is injuring his health by excessive drinking of alcoholic liquor, or neglecting his family by reason thereof, the Magistrate shall cause a written or printed notice to be given to the Board, certifying the facts, and thereafter no sale of aleoholic liquor shall be made to such person unless and until the Board shall direct, after inquiry into the habits and circumstances of such person, except for medicinal purposes, upon the prescription of a duly certified Medical Practitioner.

Riot or tumult.

27. Any two Justices of the Peace, or any Stipendiary Magistrate, when any riot or tumult happens, or is expected to happen, or when any election may be taking place, or about to take place, may order any Agent in or near the place to close his premises or any permittee to cease selling wine or beer during any time which the Justice or Magistrate may order.

Peddling an offence.

28. Peddling alcoholic liquor shall be an offence against this Act.

SALE ON PASSENGER TRAINS AND STEAMERS.

Trains and steamers

29. The Board may permit the sale by persons specially authorized thereby of wine and beer to bona fide travellers on the passenger trains on the Newfoundland Railway, or on passenger steamers, to be consumed by such travellers at the tables in the dining rooms thereof, at the ordinary meals, upon such terms as to the amounts which may be sold to a traveller, and to the prices of the said wine and beer and otherwise, as shall be prescribed by the Board.

(a) The trains and steamers on which wine and beer shall be sold under permit by the Board shall for that purpose be deemed to be establishments of the Board, and the persons permitted to make a sale thereon shall be Agents of the Board.

Vessels and camps

30. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, it shall be lawful for the Board to make special provision for the keeping and sale of spirits or wine, or both (but not of beer), for medicinal purposes only, in Labrador or Bank fishing vessels, in logging camps, and in areas where the sale thereof as a beverage is not legal.

(a) Any person selling or buying for use as a beverage or for any purpose not bona fide medicinal any spirits or wine kept for medicinal purposes, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

(b) The quantity which may be sold for medicinal purposes at any one time, the price which may be charged for it, and precautions to secure that the sale shall be proper, and for medicinal purposes only, shall be in the discretion of the Board, and subject to regulations made by it.

EXCEPTIONS.

31. No provision of this Act shall, by reason only that such product contains any alcoholic liquor, prevent,—

(a) the sale of any perfume, lotion, tincture, varnish, dressing fluid extract or essence, or vinegar;

(b) the sale of any officinal, medicinal or pharmaceutical preparation, or of any patent or proprietary medicine, intended solely for medicinal purposes:

Provided that such product does not contain alcohol in any greater quantity than the amount required as a solvent or preservative, or provided that it be so compounded as to render it unsuitable for use as a beverage.

32. If the Board is of the opinion that one of the products enumerated in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph 31 of this Act contains alcoholic liquors and is used for beverage purposes, it may notify the manufacturer or the vendor to that effect, and from and after the date of such notice this Act applies to such product, and the manufacturer or vendor so notified commits an offence against this Act if he sells such product after such notice.

33. (1) No provision in this Act shall prevent any person Medicine and practising medicine, surgery or obstetrics, registered <sup>When Perfumes, &c., used as beverage.</sup> surgery. as such under Chap. 41 Consolidated Statutes (Third Series), or any person licensed as a Dental Surgeon, and registered as such under Chap. 42 Consolidated Statutes (Third Series) from purchasing alcohol, in quantities larger than one bottle, and using the same for purposes of solution or sterilization in his own practice, or in any preparation for external application administered by himself, or from purchasing brandy, such as defined in the British Pharmacopoeia, or rum, for use in compounding his medicines; provided, however, that no such person may sell any such alcohol or spirits except when used by him for the purposes above mentioned.

- (2) No provision of this Act shall prevent any person registered as a Druggist under Chap. 43 of the Consolidated Statutes, Third Series, and keeping a drug store.—
  - (a) From purchasing alcoholic liquor in quantities larger than one bottle, for use in medicinal, officinal or pharmaceutical preparation,—provided, however that no such person may sell such alcoholic liquor, except when used by him for such purposes; or
  - (b) from purchasing ethyl Alcohol in quantities larger than one bottle, and selling the same for obstetrical or antiseptic purposes only, in quantities not exceeding two ounces, upon prescription of a Medical Practitioner authorized to practice in this Colony, or upon the simple certificate of the latter if the same be made to him personally; provided, however, that such sale shall take place only at such hours, and upon such days during which the Board cannot sell.
- (3) Every such person must purchase such Alcoholic liquor directly from the Board. The latter may, at its discretion, refuse to sell the quantity applied for.

34. In order to determine whether any particular preparation, proprietary or patented, contains Alcohol in excess of the amount required as a solvent or preservative, or whether it is so compounded as to render it unsuitable for use as a beverage, the Board may have a sample of such preparation, purchased from any person whomsoever, analyzed by such person as it may select.

- (a) If it appears from the Analysis of such sample that such preparation contains alcohol in excess of the amount required as a solvent or preservative, or that it is not so compounded as to render it unsuitable for use as a beverage, the Board may notify the manufacturer or the agent in this Colony of the manufacturer, of such liquid or solid, or the person who has acquired such liquid or solid to resell, that the same is not a medicine within the meaning of paragraph (b) of Section 31 of this Act, but is an alcoholic liquor to which this Act applies, and from the service of such notice this Act shall apply to such liquid or solid, and the Manufacturer, the Agent in this Colony of the Manufacturer, or the person who has acquired same to resell, so notified, commits an offence against this Act if he sell such liquid or solid after the date of the service upon him of such notice.
- (b) This notice shall consist of a copy, certified by the Secretary of the Board, or by one of its members, of a Resolution passed by the Board, published in the Newfoundland Gazette, stating that the liquid or solid specified in the Resolution is not a medicine in the sense of paragraph (b) of Section 31 of this Act, but is an alcoholic liquor to which this Act applies, and this notice shall be served by sending such copy by registered letter to the Manufacturer, or to the Agent in this Colony of the Manufacturer, or to the person who has acquired same to resell.
- (c) This Section applies to every preparation indicated in paragraph 2 (b) of Section 31 of this Act other than that which is only prepared by the Pharmacist at the time of the prescription of the Physician and in accordance with its tenor, or which is prepared by the Physician for the use only of a patient actually under his care.

If it shall appear to the Board that any person privileged by Section 33 of this Act has wilfully and continuously abused such privilege, the Board may refuse to sell to such person, by a Resolution of the Board, published in the Newfoundland Gazette, and served in the manner indicated in Section 34 (b). The Board may subsequently revoke such Resolution, but during the continuance thereof, the sale of alcoholic liquor by such person shall be an offence against this Act, and the Board shall not sell alcoholic liquor to such person for use in his business

PENALTIES.

Penalties.

35. Every person who violates any provision of this Act or Regulations made thereunder shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and where not otherwise herein provided, any person guilty of an offence against this Act shall be liable to a penalty of not less than Ten Dollars nor more than Two Hundred Dollars for a first offence, and in default of payment to imprisonment for not less than one month nor more than three months, and to a penalty of not less than Two Hundred Dollars, nor more than One Thousand Dollars, or in default of payment, imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than six months for a second or subsequent offence.

(a) In order to be a subsequent offence, an offence need not be a violation of the same provision of this Act, as that which was violated by the previous offence.

Agent of Board.

36. Any Agent of the Board, any person authorized by the Board to sell spirits or wine, for medicinal purposes, any member or Employee of the Board, guilty of an offence under this Act, shall be liable to imprisonment for six months.

37. Whosoever interferes with or hinders any person authorized by the Board or this Act to investigate any infringement of this Act, or to make any search or examination or seizure, in the performance of his duties to that end, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

38. No person employed by the Board for the enforcement of this Act, when acting in his official capacity nor any one acting under the instructions of any such employee, shall incur any of the Penalties enacted by this Act for the punishment of those who obtain Alcoholic liquor.

EXAMINATIONS SEARCHES AND SEIZURES.

39. A document signed by the Chairman or any two members of the Board, authorizing generally or specially, any person to make searches, examinations or seizures authorized by this Act shall be prima facie proof of the authority of such persons.

40.(1) Wherever any alcoholic liquor is transported in this Colony in receptacles of any kind, whether or not they be labelled or marked as containing Alcoholic liquor or otherwise:

- (a) If such alcoholic liquor be in sufficient quantity to give rise to suspicion that it is being transported for the purpose of selling of same; or,
- (b) If the said liquor be transported under circumstances justifying the presumption that it is being so transported to be sold unlawfully.

Any person authorized to that effect by the Board, or any Constable, may open any such receptacle wherever it may be, with all the necessary aid and even by force in case of resistance, and may examine the contents thereof; and if such receptacle contains alcoholic liquor, he shall, without a warrant being required, seize the same, as well as the receptacle containing it and hand them over to the Board, which shall keep them in its custody until the Court has disposed of them by a Judgment.

(2)The powers given by Sub-Sec. (1) of this Section may be exercised in cases of peddling of alcoholic liquor.

Powers to enter and search.

41. Any person authorized to that effect by the Board, or any Constable, may, even by force, if entrance is refused him, go on board any ship, boat or vehicle, and enter any place, lot or building in which he has reason to suspect that any alcoholic liquor is kept or sold in contravention of this Act, make any search, and open, with all the necessary aid, and even by force in the case of refusal to do so, any cupboard or receptacle in which he thinks such liquor is contained; and if he discover any alcoholic liquor, he shall, without a warrant being required, seize it, as well as every receptacle containing it, and hand them over to the Board, which shall keep them in its custody until the Court has disposed of them by a judgment.

Disorderly house

42. Any person authorized to that effect by the Board, or any Constable, may, without a warrant, seize alcoholic liquor found in a disorderly house, as well as any receptacle containing the same, and hand them over to the Board, which shall keep them in its custody until the Court has disposed of them by a judgment.

Seizure

43. Any person authorized to that effect by the Board, or any Constable, may, without a warrant seize any alcoholic liquor which to his knowledge or that of the Board is, in any other way than above indicated, kept, transported or sold in contravention of this Act, as well as any receptacle containing it, and hand them over to the Board, which shall keep them in its custody until the Court has otherwise disposed of them by a judgment.

Detention of vehicles.

44. (1)When any alcoholic liquor is seized in a vehicle, and such vehicle is of such nature that it could be confiscated by the Court if such liquor was being transported in contravention of this Act, the Officer or Inspector effecting the seizure may detain such vehicle and use it, without charge, for transporting the alcoholic liquor so seized, as well as the receptacle containing it, to the custody of the Board; the Board may seize such vehicle, and keep it until the Court, by its judgment, declares it confiscated for the benefit of the Board.

- (2) Alcoholic liquor, and any container of such liquor, or vehicles transporting the same, seized under this Act, shall be confiscated by the Court upon proof of an offence against this Act in relation to such liquor.
- (3) Any judgment inflicting a penalty for an offence against this Act, shall ipso facto carry with it the confiscation of any alcoholic liquor and its containers or vehicles, transporting it connected with such offence, and seized under this Act, and if the Court shall be of opinion that an accused is not guilty of an offence, but that alcoholic liquor and its containers or vehicles transporting it, seized in connection with the offence charged, were kept, transported or used in violation of this Act, it may order the confiscation thereof.
- (4) The Board shall within thirty days of any seizure apply to a Stipendiary Magistrate for confiscation of the articles seized, except as provided for by Sub-Section 5 of this Section.
- (5) If the name and address of any person at whose premises or in whose possession Articles have been when seized are not known, they shall be deemed confiscated at the expiration of sixty days from the seizure thereof.
- (6) All confiscations shall be to and for the use of the Board.

POWERS OF CONSTABLES.

Fowers of constables.

45. It shall be lawful for any Constable

- (a)to enter any place where alcoholic liquor is thought to be manufactured or sold, or kept for sale or importation, contrary to this Act, and take therefrom a sample of alcoholic liquor not exceeding in quantity one bottle for the purpose of Analysis.
- (b)To enter any establishment of the Board for the sale of alcoholic liquor to see that the provisions of this Act are complied with.
- (c)To go on board any ship or boat, or enter any part thereof, where alcoholic liquor is thought to be manufactured, kept for sale or sold, or kept contrary to this Act.
- (d)To seize or remove alcoholic liquor, manufactured, sold or kept for sale or imported, or kept in violation of this Act.

offenders

46. Any Constable seizing or removing alcoholic liquor shall immediately thereafter report to the Board the Offenders against this Act.

Obstruction of constable

47. No person shall interrupt, obstruct or assault any Constable in the discharge of his duties hereunder, or shall refuse or fail to admit any Constable to enter any place, or, having admitted such Constable, refuse or fail to allow him to take an account of any alcoholic liquor found or to furnish such assistance as he may require.

Proceedings against Constable.

48. When a tribunal before which a proceeding against a Constable has taken place, for anything done by him under this Act, shall have certified that there was a probable cause for the action of the Constable, and that it was not malicious, a verdict or judgment shall not be given against the Constable for more than five cents damages, nor for any costs of suit.

(a) Where in the course of a prosecution under this Act it shall appear that any Constable shall have acted bona fide under the powers conferred by this Act, the Stipendiary Magistrate shall, if requested so to do by the Constable or on his behalf, give a certificate if the case be so that there was probable cause for the action of the Constable and that it was not malicious.

PROCEDURE.

49. All prosecutions under this Act may be sued for, Prosecutions imposed and recovered in a summary manner before a <sup>under Act:</sup> Stipendiary Magistrate.

- (a) All prosecutions shall be commenced in the name of the Board within six calendar months after the offence complained of has been committed, by complaint in writing by the Board or a Constable.
- (b) All prosecutions shall be tried under the Imperial Act 11 and 12 Victoria, Chapter 43, and Acts in amendment thereof, and the convicting Magistrate shall have, in convictions hereunder, the powers therein given of adjudicating in case of default, of compelling the attendance of witnesses, and of distress and sale of the goods and chattels of persons convicted.
- (c) Any person may call upon the Board to take any action, and the Board may, in its discretion either before or during the suit, exact from such person the deposit of a sum of money sufficient to cover the costs in case the proceeding is dismissed, and may discontinue the proceedings if such person shall fail to deposit the said sum.

- (d)The Board may give compensation or reward for information tending to a conviction for an offence under this Act, or for the conduct of any Constable acting hereunder.
- (e)Such compensation or reward if given in respect of the information given or the conduct of a Constable, shall be to the Officer in charge of the Newfoundland Constabulary force for the benefit of widows and Orphans of deceased members of the Force.

Proving of sale.

50. In proving a sale for the purpose of any proceeding under this Act, it shall not be necessary to show that any money actually passed, if the Magistrate hearing the case be satisfied that a transaction in the nature of a sale took place.

Prima Facie evidence

51. If it shall be proved that bottles or decanters, or tumblers, or glasses, or other vessels which are usually employed for holding and using Alcoholic liquor, were found in and upon the premises of a person accused of the sale of Alcoholic liquor, and that such vessels had been recently used, or that persons were found drinking or drunk on the premises of the accused, such proof shall be prima facie evidence of a sale in violation of this Act, and the accused shall thereupon be required to establish his innocence.

Unnecessary to specify particular liquor

52. In any proceeding under this Act, it shall not be necessary to specify the particular sort of liquors sold, nor to whom, nor the time when sold, but it shall be sufficient in the summons to charge the party accused with a breach of some Section of this Act, and no judgment shall be withheld on account of variance between proof and summons if it appears to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the Defendant was aware of the real cause of complaint. The Magistrate may grant time to make a full defence on the Merits.

No judgment shall be set aside for any variance or for any formal objection.

53. Any sale of alcoholic liquor made on the premises of any person by the wife, child or servant of such person, shall be considered presumptively as the act of the husband, parent or master, and the husband, parent or master shall be liable for an offence against this Act as though he had personally made the sale. The wife, child or servant shall also be liable.

54. A Stipendiary Magistrate convicting any person for a breach of this Act shall forthwith report the conviction to the Board, and the Board shall once in each month publish in the Newfoundland Gazette and a daily Newspaper the name, place and residence of every person convicted during the preceding month.

APPEALS AND OTHER REMEDIES.

55. The Board or any Defendant feeling aggrieved by any conviction, judgment or sentence of any Magistrate, may appeal to the Supreme Court, as follows:—

- (a)The Board, if appealing, shall within ten days give written notice to the convicting Magistrate and to the defendant of its intention so to appeal by posting such notice through the mail.
- (b)The Appellant shall within ten days give written notice to the convicting Magistrate and to the Board by posting said notice through the mail by registered letter, or by personal service, of his intention so to appeal, and shall within the said ten days—
- (c)Give sufficient sureties to the said Magistrate to prosecute the appeal at the next ensuing sitting of the Supreme Court, or at such time as the Supreme Court shall order, and to abide by the judgment of the Supreme Court thereon, and to pay such penalty and costs, or perform such other act, or comply with such conditions as may be ordered or imposed by it.

Stay of judgment.

56. When an appeal has been perfected as aforesaid,—

(a) The judgment shall be stayed until the event of the appeal is certified to the Magistrate by the Registrar of the Supreme Court.

(b) The Magistrate shall forthwith send a full and accurate record to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, consisting of—

(1) The depositions, if any;

(2) The Warrant or Summons, as the case may be;

(3) The conviction, judgment or sentence;

(4) A copy of all the evidence taken in the case;

(5) A statement of the nature of evidence rejected as inadmissible, and the grounds of objection thereto.

(c) On the filing of such record, the Supreme Court, upon motion of either party, shall proceed to hear and determine such appeal, and such Court may affirm, amend, reform, correct, reverse, vary or dismiss such conviction, judgment or sentence as may appear just, and to that end may receive further evidence if deemed necessary.

No convictions to be quashed for want or form

57. No conviction or Order shall be quashed for want of form, and no warrant or commitment shall be held void by reason of any defect therein; provided that there is a valid conviction to maintain such warrant and it is alleged in the warrant that the party has been convicted.

58. (1) No writ of quo warranto may be granted with respect to the Office held or power exercised by the Board or any member thereof.
- (2) No writ of mandamus may be issued to order the Board or any member thereof to discharge any duty or to do any act.
- (3) No writ of injunction may be granted to prevent, either temporarily or permanently, the Board or any of its Members doing anything or carrying out any operation, or continuing to do anything or to carry out any operation.
- (4) No writ of certiorari may be granted to remove any action or proceeding instituted under this Act.
- (5) No writ of prohibition may be issued with respect to anything done or proposed to be done under this Act.
59. (1) Every Stipendiary Magistrate who has collected any fine or costs, shall hand the same over to the Board within fifteen days from the date of the collection, if no appeal be taken from the judgment rendered, and in case of appeal within fifteen days from the date of the final judgment. On failure so to do the said Stipendiary Magistrate shall be liable to a fine of one dollar for every day he neglects to make such remittance after the expiration of such delay of fifteen days.
- (2) Of the amount recovered out of any fine imposed in a proceeding hereunder by a Member of the Constabulary Force of Newfoundland, one-third of the net, after deducting the expense of prosecuting such proceeding, shall be paid by the Board to the Inspector and General Superintendent of the said

Constabulary Force for the benefit of its Widows and Orphans Relief Fund.

Proclamation

60. This Act shall come into force and effect on a day to be proclaimed by the Governor-in-Council, through the Newfoundland Gazette, and upon that day all the rights, property and effects of the Colony in the possession or under the authority of the Controller shall pass to the Board appointed hereunder.

Repeal

61. Chapter 68 of the Consolidated Statutes Third Series, entitled "Of the Prohibition of Intoxicating Liquors," and Chapter 22, 8 George V., entitled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Prohibition of the Importation, Manufacture and Sale of Intoxicating Liquors" are hereby repealed, as on the day proclaimed by the Governor-in-Council for the coming of this Act into force.

24. Short title.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Appointment of Board.

1. The Governor-in-Council shall appoint a Board, to be called "The Game and Inland Fisheries Board" (hereinafter referred to as the Board), which shall consist of not more than twenty members, of which Board the Minister of Marine and Fisheries shall be the President. The Board holding office at the passing of this Act shall be deemed to have been appointed under this Act.

Powers, duties and functions of Board.

2. The powers, duties and functions of the Board shall be to make inquiries and researches and to take all necessary action in relation to (1)the adequate preservation, protection and propagation of birds, wild or migratory; (2) the adequate preservation, protection, and propagation of deer, moose and other animals ferae naturae, game or fur-bearing; and (3)the protection and improvement of the Inland Fisheries in and pertaining to this Colony; and to devise, organize and maintain methods of diffusing knowledge and information in respect of the matters aforesaid.

Officers

3. The Board shall have power to elect annually a Vice-President, who in the absence of the President, shall take the chair at meetings of the Board, and also two Assistant Vice-Presidents, who shall, in order of their Seniority, preside at meetings of the Board at which neither the President nor the Vice-President shall be in attendance. Such Officers shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the Board, when their successors shall be elected. The said Officers shall be eligible for re-election at the annual meetings. The services of such Officers and of the members of the Board shall be honorary, and no fees, emoluments, or exemptions shall attach thereto.

Quorum.

4. In all meetings of the Board five members, exclusive of the presiding Officer, shall constitute a quorum.

Secretary.

5. It shall be the duty of the Board to appoint a Secretary (not being a member of the Board) whose salary shall be fixed by the Board. The duties of such Secretary shall be to do and perform all such matters and things as usually pertain to the Office of Secretary, a portion of which shall be the keeping of a correct record of all meetings and proceedings of the Board, the preservation of all correspondence addressed to the Board or to himself as such Secretary, and the answering of such correspondence subject to the direction or supervision of the Board. He shall also undertake all such necessary travellings and journeys within the Island and its Dependencies, as he may from time to time be directed by the Board to undertake, and make and prosecute such inquiries as may be required in manner as the same shall be ordered, and shall take action as the Board shall deem necessary in respect of the same, and shall make immediate reports to the Board as to the manner in which he shall have performed the duties required of him. The costs of such journeyings and all necessary collateral expenditure shall be submitted to the Board and shall be paid upon vouchers and approval.

6. The Board shall have power to appoint all Wardens, Wardens and Inspectors of Wardens and other Officers or servants necessary to the carrying out of its functions, and may define their duties and make general regulations as to their conduct and employment. The Board shall also have power, in the exercise of its discretion, to dismiss any warden, inspector or other Officer or servant.

7. All licenses, required under this Act or regulations made under it, shall be issued by the Board, or by Agents appointed by the Board, and shall be signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary. The Board shall have the sole authority to grant or refuse any such License, and may cancel any such license at any time. Such cancellation shall be deemed to be fully warranted by proof which shall satisfy the Board that the holder has been guilty of any breach of the regulations or conditions under which the License was issued.

8. The accounts of the Board shall be kept in the Office of the Board and shall be subject to audit of the Comptroller and Auditor General.

Funds.

9. All moneys received under the provisions of this Act, and all moneys, votes, subsidies, or subventions of the Legislature, granted for the purpose of the Board, shall be paid into a Bank in St. John's, to the credit of the Board. Out of the Funds so provided, the Board shall pay all wardens and other Officials and servants of the Board such salaries as the Board may consider proper and adequate, and, in addition such expenses as may be necessary for the carrying out of the objects and duties of the Board. All payments and expenditure of the said funds, when authorized by the Board or a majority present at any duly constituted meeting of the same, shall be made by cheque, which cheque shall be signed by the President, or in his absence by the Vice-President, and countersigned by the Secretary. The expenditure of the Funds under control of the Board shall be administered with all reasonable economy, and the unexpended balance, if any, at the end of each year, shall be disposed of as the Governor-in-Council may direct.

Board may authorize hunting and export for special purposes.

10. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or regulations under it, the Board may at any time authorize the hunting, shooting, taking, killing and export of any fish, birds, wild or migratory, deer, moose, and other animals ferae naturae, game or fur-bearing and the taking and export of the eggs of such birds, for the purpose of exchange with or presentation to the authorities of any other country or Game Society or otherwise, as the Board may think expedient and advisable and on such terms and conditions as it may see fit to impose.

Regulations.

11. (1) The Board may from time to time make regulations, which shall be subject to the approval of the Governor-in-Council, for the better management of the sea-coast and inland fisheries; for preventing or remedying the obstruction and pollution of the streams and inland waters; for the limitation or prevention of fishing in inland and estuary waters; for the prevention of the destruction of fish; generally for the preservation, propagation and protection of birds, wild or migratory, deer, moose and other animals ferae naturae, game or fur-bearing; for prohibiting in such cases as the Board may see fit, persons from fishing, hunting or engaging in any business or undertaking, affecting, or likely to affect, matters under the Board's jurisdiction, except under license from the Board; for the issue of licenses under this Act and the imposition of fees in respect of such licenses and the conditions governing them; for the creation of reserves and close seasons and fixing such modes, times and places, in respect of any matters under the jurisdiction of the Board, as may be deemed adapted to different locations or otherwise expedient; and fixing and prescribing penalties for the breach of any such regulations.

- (2) All such regulations, approved as aforesaid shall have the same force and effect as if herein enacted, and shall be in force and take effect from the date therein named and after publication in the Newfoundland Gazette.
- (3) No penalty as aforesaid shall exceed the sum of one thousand dollars for any one breach or, in default of payment, imprisonment for any term exceeding six months.
- (4) Every offence against any regulation made under this Act may be stated as a violation of this Act, and shall be triable in a summary manner before any Stipendiary Magistrate.

12. Every person convicted of a violation of any of the regulations made under this Act, and duly approved and promulgated shall be liable to the penalty fixed and prescribed in the regulation for such violation. Every person convicted of a violation of this Act, or of any such regulation, for which no penalty is specially provided, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars, and, in default of payment to imprisonment not exceeding six months. Any Justice of the Peace may grant a warrant of distress to the amount of any of the penalties in this Section mentioned, and costs. If any defendant has goods and chattels whereon the costs may be levied, the complainant may distrain for the amount by warrant under the hand and seal of any Justice of the Peace, notwithstanding the imprisonment of the Person convicted.

Penalties—how recoverable.

13. Any penalties under this Act may be sued for and recovered in a summary manner before a Stipendiary Magistrate by any person who shall sue for the same. A moiety of every money penalty levied by virtue of this Act shall belong to His Majesty for the use of the Board, and the other moiety shall be paid to the informer, who shall prosecute to a conviction, together with costs taxed to him in respect thereof. His Majesty's share of each penalty and all proceeds from the sale of confiscated goods, shall be paid to the Board.

Confiscation.

14. All materials, implements or appliances used, and all fish or game, or animals, game or fur-bearing (or portions thereof) taken or killed in violation of this Act, or any such regulations as aforesaid shall be confiscated to His Majesty, and may be seized on view by any Warden, Inspector, or other Officer or servant of the Board, or by any licensed guide, or taken and removed by any person for delivery to any Justice of the Peace, for disposal at the discretion of the Board.

Powers to enter and search.

15. Any Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, police, Custom's or game Officer, who believes or has reason to believe that any animals, birds or fish, or portion of animals, birds or fish, are contained in or upon any house, shop, store, wharf, or premises, vessel or boat or in any package or luggage, in contravention of this Act, or [any regulation made hereunder, may enter upon such house, shop, store, wharf or premises, vessel or boat, using if necessary sufficient force for the purpose, and search therein, and open and examine the contents of any package or luggage.

16. Any person resisting any Officer engaged in carrying out the provisions of this Act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, and in default of payment may be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months.

17. Any person before whom, by this Act or regulations made under it, an oath, affirmation or declaration shall or may be taken, is hereby authorized to administer the same. Any person knowingly or wilfully making a false oath, affirmation or declaration under this Act, or regulations made under it, shall, in addition to any other penalty to which he may be subject, be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury.

18. Penalties under this Act, or the regulations made under it, shall be sued for within two years from the commission of the offence.

19. No proceedings under this Act or the regulations made under it, shall be set aside or quashed for want or defect of form or for irregularity, and no warrant of arrest or commitment shall be held void by reason of any defect therein, if it is therein stated that the defendant has been convicted and that there is good and valid conviction to sustain the same.

20. The Board or any defendant feeling aggrieved by any conviction, judgment or sentence of any Magistrate, may appeal to the Supreme Court, as follows:

(a) The Board, if appealing shall within ten days give written notice to the Convicting Magistrate and to the defendant of its intention so to appeal by posting said notice through the mail.

(b) the defendant within ten days shall give notice to the Convicting Magistrate and to the Board, by posting said notice through the mail, by registered letter, or by personal service, of his intention so to appeal, and shall within the said ten days:

1. give sufficient sureties to the said Magistrate to prosecute the appeal at the next ensuing sitting of the Supreme Court, or at such time as the said Supreme Court shall order, and to abide by the judgment of the Supreme Court thereon, and to pay such penalty and costs, or perform such other act or comply with such conditions as may be ordered or imposed by it.

when an appeal has been perfected as aforesaid :—

- (a) The judgment shall be stayed until the event of the appeal is certified to the Magistrate by the Registrar of the Supreme Court.
- (b) The Magistrate shall forthwith send a full and accurate record to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, consisting of,—
  1. The depositions, if any.
  2. The warrant or summons as the case may be.
  3. The conviction, judgment or sentence.
  4. A copy of all the evidence taken in the case.
  5. A statement of the nature of evidence rejected as inadmissible and the grounds of objection thereto.
- (c) On the filing of such record, the Supreme Court upon motion of either party, shall proceed to hear and determine such appeal, and such Supreme Court may affirm, amend, reform, correct, reverse, vary or dismiss such conviction, judgment or sentence as may appear just, and to that end may receive further evidence if deemed necessary.
- (d) No conviction or order shall be quashed for want of form, and no warrant or commitment shall be held void by reason of any defect therein; provided that there is a valid conviction to maintain such warrant, and it is alleged in the warrant that the party has been convicted.

21. Married women, concerned in any breach of the Married Women provisions of this Act, shall be liable for the penalty attaching to such breach, as if they were unmarried women or principals, but the husband of the person so offending shall not be liable to be also sued for the same offence; in the case of a married woman, the fine or penalty imposed may be levied upon the property of the husband.

22. If upon the trial of any person charged with having Persons in need taken animals, fish or game in violation of the provisions of this Act, the Magistrate before whom the case is tried is satisfied that such person actually needed such animals, fish or game, taken by him, as food for himself or family, he may dismiss the proceedings: Provided that any decision under this Section shall not form a ground of appeal under this Act.

23. The Acts contained in the Schedule hereto and all Acts in Schedule rules and regulations made thereunder shall, except in so far as they may contain anything contrary to the provisions of this Act, remain in full force and effect after the passing of this Act until repealed, replaced or otherwise amended by regulations of the Board made under this Act, and the Board shall have power by its said regulations so to repeal or amend the said Acts, or any of them, either wholly or in part and as the Board may see fit.

24. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Short title. Game and Inland Fisheries Act, 1924.
